Friday 8th December 2017

Dear Parent/Carer,

We are almost at the end of another term at Place Farm. Our youngest pupils in Early Years have settled beautifully and are enjoying being members of our Place Farm community. Friday is set to be a fun day: we have our Christmas dinner; the whole school will be joining to sing carols on the playground; and this is followed by the Friends event and a second-hand book sale. We look forward to seeing you there!

Jane Sendall
Headteacher

After the success of our summer second-hand book sale, we would like to give you another opportunity to buy some lovely books for no more than 50p each!

These books will be on sale on the playground with the Friends of Place Farm Christmas bazaar, before and after our Festive Carol Singing next Friday 15th December.

So come along at 2.45pm and don't miss out on the opportunity to build up your reading stock for the Christmas holidays!

All proceeds will go towards new resources in our library.

This week we held our third annual Art Exhibition. It was lovely to see so many parents/carers join us for this event, taking time to share their child's work and admiring their Masterpieces! The children thoroughly enjoyed the Art project and developed many different artistic skills along the way, such as: sketching, clay modelling, tinting and toning and self-portraits. The children were able to research their topic and explore it through different types of media and materials. Thank you all for taking time to come along to view your child's work.
